

<https://www.scarleteen.com/>

Talks about relationships, from consent to dating to sexual health. this website has safety planning for teens in abusive relationships/families. Basically talks about sex-ed but is geared towards teens and is very inclusive.

<https://www.circleof6app.com/>

This is a safety app. It is free. You choose up to 6 friends and with a tap you can send them your GPS, ask them to call you and pretend they need you, call or message that you need help. It also connects with local hotlines in that area for sexual assault. It is geared towards teens to college.